The town tax books will be closed March 31st and persons who have not done so already should pay up at once. Marshal Bennett requests the TELEGRAPH to state that he has consulted the council regarding an extension of the time for closing the books, and that there positively will be no extension.

Nervous weakness or palpitation of the heart indicates disorder of the stomach and digestion. Prickly Ash Bitters is a wonderful remedy in such cases. It cleanses, strengthens and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, removes the cause of the heart symptoms and builds up a strong and vigorous body. Sold by Starke Drug Company.

Rev. T. Bishop, of Columbia City, who was to have assisted Rev. E. H. Giles with a series of meetings at the Methodist church is prostrated with la grippe. On account of the illness of Mr. Bishop and the inclement weather Mr. Giles has discontinued the meeting for the present, but will resume the work next Wednesday evening, and hopes for the hearty co-operation of the membership of the church.

A man named E. Presson, of Pressonville, Kans., wrote a letter the other day, saying the opinion of everybody in his town who has used Foley's Honey and Tar is, that it is the very best medicine for 'grippe, colds, coughs etc.' J. L. Gaskins.

J. E. Futch, Esq., returned Monday from Key West, where he represented Starke Lodge No. 34, Knights of Pythias, in the grand lodge Mr. Futch enjoyed the trip very much, and was much pleased with the hospitality of the people of Key West. On the return trip our good friend, John Croft, who represented the Lake Butler lodge, is said by Mr. Futch to have sighed more than once for the earth. He was violently seasick.

Rev. W. E. Sitzer, W. Canton, N. Y., writes, "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat. J. L. Gaskins.

When Court Will Convene.

The TELEGRAPH has had a very serious time in its efforts to state the date upon which the spring term of circuit court will convene. First we placed it on the third Monday in the month, and finding that was wrong undertook to correct ourselves and show that the court would convene on the fourth Monday, March 26th, but the type went back on us and we got it right 24 h.

These pestiferous mistakes will sometimes occur even in the best regulated printing offices, but, notwithstanding that fact, the TELEGRAPH regrets to make misleading statements for the reason that our mistakes not infrequently inconvenience our subscribers.

The spring term of the court will convene MARCH 26TH, the same being the 4th Monday in said month. There is no mistake about the date this time.

A DOUBLE CRIME.

W. L. May, Formerly of Starke, Shows His Hand.

W. L. May, who was connected with the Weekly Advocate, of this city, during the early months of 1898, but who later published the Jacksonville Sunday Call, probably the filthiest paper ever printed in Florida, has at last shown his hand as a very sorry sort of a moralist to say the least.

Of May's escapade the Jacksonville Evening News of Monday, March 19th, says:

"On last Friday night it seems that May induced the young daughter of Mrs. Ida Powell to submit to a criminal relationship with him. Afterwards, realizing the gravity of his offense, May sought to cover up his crime by marriage. Application was made to County Judge Baker for a marriage license, but the same was refused, owing to the girl not being of sufficient age."

"May then secured a blank marriage license in some way and forged the name of Justice Willard to it as having issued the license. Here he showed his ignorance, as Justice Willard has no right to issue marriage licenses. These facts were soon made known, and the warrants followed, and all day Saturday and yesterday he was sought but not found, though the authorities are confident he is still in the city, under cover."

"Yesterday a prominent attorney went to Mrs. Powell and offered to compromise the matter, and in the conversation it is said that he admitted May is still in the city and anxious to have the matter straightened out."

"The affair has caused considerable talk, and public indignation condemns his actions, as his reputation is anything but savory."

When the news of May's double crime became known the authorities got after him and he went into hiding. Realizing the serious predicament in which his conduct had placed him he decided the climate of some other state would be beneficial to his health, and the Metropolis of Tuesday afternoon says that he had skipped for parts unknown.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered intensely for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Buckler's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in ten days. For ulcers, wounds, burns, boils, pain or piles it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by J. L. Gaskins, druggist.

A. R. DeFluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by J. L. Gaskins.

Case Dismissed.

If Ben Kelley has been unfortunate in getting into the meshes of the law he has been fortunate in getting out. He was to have had a hearing before Justice Mitcham at Hampton, Wednesday, on a charge of arson, but several days before the time set for the hearing the case was abandoned by W. T. Underhill, Jr., the prosecuting witness.

Mr. Underhill had charged Kelley with the burning of his barn, but it seems the accused had strong testimony to prove his presence in Palatka on the night of the fire and the case was abandoned, Mr. Underhill paying the costs.

The case was dismissed by Justice Mitcham on receipt of the following letter from Mr. Underhill:

Starke, Fla., March 16, 1900.
JUSTICE MITCHAM, Hampton, Fla.
DEAR SIR—As I am prosecutor in the case of Ben Kelley, I fear that the testimony is not sufficient to convict him, therefore ask that you dismiss the case.
Yours very respectfully,
W. H. Underhill.

Kelley did not receive notice of the dismissal of the case, and came up from Palatka Wednesday for trial. He was agreeably surprised to find that the matter had been ended, but requested the TELEGRAPH to say that he thought it a hardship on himself to have been forced to quit his work and incur traveling expenses to meet a charge that was found too weak to go to trial on.
